

FEEDING THE WORLD THROUGH SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM

PHILANTHROPIC OPPORTUNITIES

THE ROBERT H. SMITH FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE, FOOD AND ENVIRONMENT AT THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM

The Robert H. Smith Faculty of Agriculture, Food and Environment is developing innovative and broadly applicable methods for boosting food supplies, preserving scarce natural resources and combating disease. Four main entities are fostering this work: The Robert H. Smith Institute of Plant Sciences, the Institute of Biochemistry, Food Science and Nutrition, a new Institute of Environmental Sciences and Natural Resources in Agriculture, and a new complex combining the Department of Animal Sciences and the Koret School of Veterinary Medicine. We invite you to support this transformative vision.
